GENERAL NEWS.

The Commissioners of Pensions has decided that "rebel deserters, who have subsequently enlisted in the United States military service, do not thereby become entitled to the benefits of the pension laws. It is expressly provided by Congressional enactment that no pension shall be paid to any person who has borne arms against the Government or in any manner given aid and comfort to the rebellion. The Executive pardon has no effect to set aside or modify this law."

Wm. J. Pickerson, a soldier, is now confined at Fortress Monroe, sentenced to six months' imprisonment and forfeiture of ten dollars per month, for calling his superior officer an unmitigated puppy. As he has passed through twenty battles, with honor, his townsmen are petitioning for his release.

R. J. Walker, former Secretary of the Treasury, is in Washington and holding interviews with the heads of the various Departments. There is some financial scheme on foot.

The King of Denmark has presented the large gold medal of merit to Mr. Kennedy, of the Census Bureau, in appreciation of his service in connection with statistical science.

Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, it seems, has come out in a speech in Kentucky, against negro suffrage. Mr. Kasson is said to be one of the most brilliant Republican members of the House of Representatives.

The Louisville Democrat estimates that over 60,000 slaves have crossed over the Ohio river, under Gen. Palmer's passes since the 1st of May. At this rate, the whole slave population of Kentucky will "pass away" in less than one year.

Another effort is to be made to raise the old frigate Congress, sunk off Newport News.

There now remains in custody of the Government but one prisoner of war, Capt. Henry Werz, confined in the Old Capitol, awaiting his trial upon charges of cruelty to prisoners at Andersonville. All the depots for prisoners have been closed, and the material of most of them has been ordered to be disposed of. With the exception of Werz, none remain in the Old Capitol except prisoners of State, and men of the U. S. army, awaiting trial, or the execution of sentences by Court-Martial.

Information has been received of the suspension, by order of Maj. Gen. Ruger, of the Daily Union Banner, of Salisbury, N. C., for publishing an article disloyal in spirit, and making false statements respecting Gen. Howard and the Freedmen's Bureau.

The family of ex-Vice President Hamlin is well taken care of. Major Charles Hamlin, who has lived in Washington during the entire war, draws $3,300; another son, with rank of Brigadier, $4,500; a brother of the ex-Vice President has an office of $4,000; a son-in-law was made paymaster as soon as he married, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, and $3,600.

Judge Cooley, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; Judge Edmonds, Commissioner of the General Land Office; the Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Southern Division; Gen. Harney, Gen. Herron and Col. Parker, of Lieut. General Grant's staff, have been appointed a commission to meet in council on the 1st of September, at or near Fort Gibson, twenty or thirty tribes of Indians, including those who, made treaties with Albert Pike. The object is understood to be to make such arrangements as will conduce to their social comfort, as well as to preserve peace on the plains.

In Kentucky, on Thursday last, some six or seven candidates for the Legislature were arrested by order of General Palmer.

The Wilmington N. C., Herald is alarmed at the frequency of collisions between the blacks and whites in the vicinity of that town.
